CREAM, POULTRY AND EGG POOL TO BE FIRST ESTABLISHED HERE

First Farmers' Co-Operative Produce Station To Be Planned for Maysville at Meeting of Farmers to Be Held Next Saturday.

Plans to establish a series of cream and poultry marketing associations for the assembling and shipping of cream, poultry and eggs co-operatively are rapidly nearing completion under the direction of the Kentucky Farmers

H. C. Pierce, director of produce, and E. L. Harrison, state president, have returned to Lexington from a business trip through Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska and Minnesota where they spent some time in the examination and investigation of creameries, poultry packing, cold storage and egg breaking plants to obtain the best ideas on the produce business preparatory to launching the first cream and poultry marketing association.

An organization committee to complete the plans for forming the association in the Northern Kentucky district composed of Mason, Lewis, Fleming, Robertson and Bracken counties will be elected at a meeting of members held at Maysville Satūrday. A central shipping station will be established at Maysville, it is thought, with sub-stations at each county seat of the other counties comprising the district. These substations will assemble the produce for shipment gathering it up by trucks working out from each substation and ship to the central station where cars will be loaded.

shipping stations at each point where there is sufficient volume of cream poultry and eggs to justify it are under way. Central stations will be organized at Bowling Green, Campbellsville, Franklin, Glasgow and at several points in the Bluegrass. As Kentucky and Tennessee are the heaviest poultry producing states in the union, cooperative shipping is expected to have very successful results, the officials say. The plan as outlined by the Kentucky produce leaders was heartily endorsed by leaders of the cooperative movement in the Western states as one of the most practical drafted, it was said.

With the establishment of the first central shipping station, others in the Bluegrass area will be organized by the members of the Farmers Union in Clark, Scott, Fayette, Jessamine, Harrison, Woodford and Montgomery counties.

MANY HEAR EVANGELIST AT TENT WEDNESDAY

Large Crowds Heard Evangelist Howard Speak on the Conversion of the Blind Beggar at Tent Revival.

Evangelist Howard, preaches on The Conversion of the poor blind beggar." His text was taken from the nineteenth chapter of the gospel according to St. Luke, "And he cried, Oh Lord have mercy on me." Evangelist Howard said: "This text shows down right earnestness. It doesn't pay to be half hearted about anything. It will hinder you in the business circle, and you won't make much progress in religion as long as you go about it half-heartedly. Some folks think that all there is to getting saved, is to 'hit the sawdust trail' and shake hands with the preacher. But God has only one way of saving the people. And when God saves you, you know it. If are saved it is the best evidence in the world that you are not saved. You must have knowledge of your spiritual condition. You can't get blessedly saved until you want to be converted more than you want anything else in the world.

"Do you have a personal knowledge of the power of Jesus Christ to save? Salvation is instantaneous. We don't grow into conversion, but we grow after we are converted. Jesus Christ knows every heart cry tonight. No matter how low a person may get in sin, Jesus can save him, if he will but earnestly repent and have faith in the blood of Jesus Christ to save."

Special quartet by the Cox family, and vocal solo by Bro. Rayl was enjoyed by the large crowd attending the tent service Wednesday night. There Plans to establish these central will be more special music Thursday and Friday nights.

WAREHOUSES TO BE ESTABLISHED ONLY WHERE NEEDED MOST

Director Barker Says Farmers Must Pay and That Their Money Will Not Be Recklessly Spent By Establishing New Warehouses.

Lexington, Ky., June 21. - That the money required for the establishment of new warehouses for the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association comes from the pockets of the farmers themselves and that none will be established where not absolutely needed for the interests of the general association were declarations in a statement made by Director of Warehouses Ralph M. Barker today, in discussing the probability of adding to the association's holdings by you do not know whether or not you the acquisition of new receiving

> "Tobacco growers, in asking for the establishment of new receiving plants." said Director Barker, "should pear in mind that it is the money of the growers that pays for these houses and that the cost will come out of the farmers' tobacco. We desire to have a receiving plant at every point where it is necessary, but our members will not uphold us in any policy of establishing plants on any other basis than

"The members of the association want us to proceed with as little cost as possible in the handling of their crops, they want necessary receiving plants and will approve them where such plants are required for the general good but, judging from what a number already have said to me, they will not approve any general plan for the establishment of warehouses just because there are none in the counties which may want them, even though these counties may grow considerable

"The burley association owns now large number of plants, in some places more than it needs, in others it has none and in some of these places it ought to have at least one. Where such plants may be necessary for properly expediting the business of the association they will be established, but not a plant will be established which the association can get along without. Growers have already indicated that this sentiment exists practically unanimously among them. and it is the intention of this office to respect that sentiment, for the farmers will have to pay, after all, every dollar of the cost of such plants as are established."

NNUAL MEETING OF MASON COUNTY HEALTH LEAGUE.

The Mason Coupnty Health League will hold its annual meeting at the court house in Maysville on Tuesday evening, June 27th, at 8 o'clock. At this meeting officers for the ensuing year will be elected and a report of the year's work given. ## SENSATIONAL DAMAGE SUIT IN BRACKEN Bracken County Farmer Sues Son-In-Law asking Damages for $10,000 Charging Most Serious of Crimes.

The Augusta Chronicle says: Late Monday afternoon Attorney Byron, representing A. A. (Buddy) Moorhead ,filed suit in the Bracken circuit court against his son-in-law, Hugh Downard, for $10,000 damages for the alleged seduction of his daughter, Miss Willie Moorhead, aged 16. After the filing of the suit is developed that Mr. and Mrs. Downard, accompanied by the latter's sister, Miss Willie Moorhead, departed several days ago for Detroit, Michigan, and that they are now in that city. All of the parties interested live in the Berlin vicinity in this county. Mr. Downard is about thirty years old, a son of the late Thomas Downard, and is the owner of a good farm of about 100 acres. Mr. Moorhead is about 47 years old and is a well-known farmer, his farm adoining that of his son-in-law, Mr. Attorney Byron, representing Mr. Moorhead, says that it is quite likely that a charge of violating the Federal

Man and Two Women Posing as Members of Salvation Army Prove to Be Imposters—Trailed By Campaign Manager.

A man and two women wearing the miform of the Salvation Army arrived in Maysville Wednesday morning and started to work canvassing the business district for funds. They soon discovered that Mr. Charles Mohr, Home Service Campaign manager for the Covington branch of the army was in Maysville putting on a campaign. Mr. Mohr met the army members and they informed him that they were from Ashland and had been sent to Maysville by the Captain. As the canvassers wore the regulation army uniforms and the official badge, Mr. Mohr though they were really members and he called the Ashland office over the telephone to learn why the canvassers had ben sent here during the campaign. He was informed by the Ashland office that they had no workers

Mr. Mohr immediately took steps to have the imposters arrested but it was learned that they had evidently bethe local police asked the Augusta officials to detain the imposters Thursday morning, it was learned that they had taken the train for Newport. Mr. Mohr immediately wired Brigadier Roberts at Covington and hopes time today. There are so many imposters working on the reputation of the Salvation Army throughout this section that Mr. Mohr says he expects to prosecute these imposters to the full extent of the law.

OUR POLICY:

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against that the United States has no foreign another.. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things policy. that are not for the good of the county as a whole.

REASONS WHY!

Busy business men should help the Salvation Army in its home service appeal:

- 1. Because now more than ever in recent years art hte resources and the service of The Salvation Army being taxed.
- 2. Because it will require some sacrifice, and the man who will not sacrifice in the face of the world's need today is out of oin with low that the United States has no forthe times. Progress can be made only by sacrifice. This cause is the eign policy at all. cause of the needy humanity.
- 3. The Salvation Army makes a dollar go so far that you can't see it for the good they pile in front of it. Their "overhead" in salares and administration costs is very low. Superlatives might be used in making this statement.
- 4. The Salvation Army is the most successful charity organization in the world. Why? Because its workers are thoroughly trained for their work. They are not imposed upon, neither are they bound by "red tape." They get quickly at the source of trouble and remove it.
- 5. The secret of their success is the spirit with which they work. Nothing mechanical or formal. Their interest is a deep religious consecration to their work. That kind of spirit deserves our encouragement.
- 6. As a busy business man, I should help them because they have too few powerful friends. They haven't taken time to cultivate them-they've ben too busy with their relief work. When a man or woman in trouble comes to them, they never "pass the buck." Neither should I, now that they need my help.
- 7. They are doing a neded work; healing the sore spots of the world; a work for which most of us lack patience; a work that must be done if civilized society shall not perish.
- 8. This cause appeals to my business sense. It will eliminate continuous solicitation for the year by Salvation Army officers who and have induced other nations to do can better employ their time.

A MAN MAY BE DOWN, BUT HE'S NEVER OUT!

HUMOR FOR THE TIRED BUSINESS MAN.

Dr. George E. Vincent, President of the Rockefeller Foundation, has provoked considerable comment, serious and humorous, by advising the American business man to develop a sense of humor and "stop talking show all the time," in the naive belief that the weight of the whole world is on his shoulders.

The American business man, however, is not guilty o ftalking shop all the time. He talks golf, baseball, politics and fishing. He even talks grand opera, pictures and other forms of art. Further, the American business man is rather famous for his sense of humor. He has not had to cultivate it; it is innate and natural to him, as it is to

It is the sense o flumor that has so often come to the rescue of the Omerican public in critical times. It has been contended, and with some reason, that the American sense of humor is too keen and too active, and that many petty abuses and grievances in politics, trade and social life would be eradicated by a more grave and solemn treatment of them. The Briton protest where the American smiles and makes jocular comment. And the American's good nature is often exploited by parasites and fakers.

American business men as a class work harder than do any other business men i nthe world; but this is not due to a lack of the sense of humor. There has been very much hard, exacting work to be done, an empire to develop, natural barriers to level down, infinite resources to tap. The American business man jokes even while working hard with his coat off. But he is learning to enjoy himself and to give himself recreation and hobbies of the right sort. He is the backbone of the educational and cultural movements in America. He not only supports them by writing cheeks, as in former days, but by devoting time and energy to them.—The Chicago News.

NO MORE USELESS MEANS

The vagaries of the Democratic mind are illustrated by a bill introduced by a Southern Senator to establish a "national hydraulic laboratory" in Washington, and making an initial appropriation of $200,000 for the purpose. The new bureau would conduct research into river hydraulies and the causes of floods. The files of the Geological Survey, the Engineer Corps of the Army, the Mississippi River Commission, the Reclamation Service, and other Federal establishments are replete with every conceivable form of data on river flowage and floods. If ther is anything lacking, those bueraus have ample power to make an investigation and gather the information. The Administration polic yis to curtail useless Federal activities and stop all overlapping of duties, yet this enterprising Democrat would tap the Treasury at another point and let fourth a new flood of the taxpayers' money.

WHAT RULE FOR CAMPAIGN EXPENSES?

A Senate subcommittee has been appointed to consider the subject of further limitation of campaign expenses. Its members will doubtless give the matter serious thought and submit a report, but it is a question whether a law can be drafted that will work impartially. The statute now in force is notoriously unfair. A candidate for the Senate in the great state of New York can spend no more than a similar candidate from the sparsely settled state of Nevada. A candidate in a state where the political sentiment is pretty equally divid. ed is limited in his expenses to the same amount that can be spent by a man in a solid Democratis state o fthe South. In practically every state and in every campaign there are circumstances that either awrrant a much larger expenditure than the law allows, or in which expenses up to the ful limit of the law would be gross extravagance.

Probably what aidls the national Civil Service Reform Association, which lets out a shrick every time a deserving Democrat is pried loose from the public payroll, is that its officers were not chosen by the examination brand of merit system,

ONE STUDENT DISMISSED.

Richmond, Ky., June 20. - Lester Scott, the second student to be tried in the county court here today on the charge of selling teacher's examination papers, was dismissed by Judge Goodloe when the prosecution failed to show that he had taken part in the alleged practice.

Three students accused of complicity in the affair, who told all they knew on the stand, will have the charges against them dismissed, officials said, because they had turned state's evidence. They are, according to the authorities, W. K. Spurlock, Clay county; Jesse Lay, Knox county, and Albert Smith, Owen county.

Trial of the remaining defendants was postponed until June 27.

SUMMER UNION SERVICES ARRANGED FOR THE OPEN

Beginning the first of July Union Church Services Will Be Held at Night On Court House Lawn.

At a joint meeting of the Maysville Pastors' Union and the committee of laymen appointed recently to plan for the summer union services held at the Third Street M. E. church Thursday morning, the details of the series of open-air services were left to various committees named.

These services will begin on the first Sunday evening in July and continue during the months of July and August. Rev. W. S. Peters, of Third street church, will be the first speaker. There will be organized a large chorus choir and seats will be built on the court house lawn so that those attending may be seated during the service.

A large platform will be erected in Sutton street upon which there will be placed a piano a nd a speakers' stand. It is thought that these services will prove very popular during the summer months.

FREEDOM SHORT-LIVED FOR TAXICAB DRIVER'S SLAYER.

Lexington, Ky., June 21.-Less than two hours after he had escaped from Eastern State Hospital, Luther Dean, 19 years old, confined to the institution Thursday after he had been adjudged insane at his trial for the murder of Luther Jones a taxi-driver, was captured in the yard of a residence near the corner of Sixth and Walnut streets early this morning.

Dean escaped from the hospital at 2:30 o'clock. He was captured at 3:55 o'clock by Patrolmen Hulett, Emery and Withers.

He offered no resistance when taken into custody and was immediately taken to police headquarters where he was confined in a cell. Authorities from the hospital returned the boy to the institution

MANY LAWYERS IN SUIT BEFORE JUDGE COCHRAN

From 1911 Sought In Letcher County Case.

Trial of the suit brought by the Kentucky Coal Lands company against the Mineral Development company will be continued before Judge A. M. J. Cochran in federal court Thursday morning. The case was begun Wednesday morning and continued until court adjourned but was not completed.

The suit involved the alleged conversion of 3,000 trees to the defendants' use from lands in Letcher county belonging to the plaintiff. The plaintiff seeks a judgment for $15,000 with interest from 1911. The case was transferred to Lexington from the rankfort docket. It was to have been ried by a jury but attorneys on both sides waived this right and agreed to submit the case for decision to Judge Cochran on the law and the facts.

A formidable array of counsel is apearing for both the plaintiff and defendant. Attorneys for the plaintiff are Cleon K. Calvert and William Ayres, of Pineville, Barthell, Fitz and Rundall, of Chicago, C. H. Morris and David Hays of Whitesburg. Counsel for the defense are E. L. Worthington, of Maysville, S. B. Dishmon, and Thomas D. Tinsley, Barboursville, D. D. Fields, Whitesburg, Wilson and Harbison, Lexington, and J. Bullitt, of Philadelphia, Pa.
